

Settling on the 32 hardest states, by scheduling condition

Only the delay VALUES matter: separation is necessary (right two fail) and sufficient (left two succeed, whether or not the delays are commensurate). Across 12 permutations of the same primes, $sd = 0.00$.